

Royal Aeronautical Society Seattle Branch

The Royal Aeronautical Society Seattle Branch Invites you to:

“And Just How Do Airlines Pay for All Those Airplanes”

with

Dennis L. Bekemeyer

Mr. Bekemeyer is principal of Bekemeyer Aviation Law Offices, and formerly a partner in the New York and Seattle offices of Sidley Austin LLP and in the Seattle and District of Columbia offices of Perkins Coie LLP, having led the aircraft finance teams in these firms. Mr. Bekemeyer has broad experience in virtually all aspects of aircraft and aerospace finance, having represented many of the world's leading aircraft, engine, satellite and launch vehicle manufacturers, together with many of the world's leading aircraft and aerospace lessors, lessees, lenders, equity investors, arrangers and underwriters. Denny will draw from his vast experience and share with us some tailored materials from his course, Fundamentals of Aircraft Finance, which he teaches at the University of Illinois College of Law.

Come and hear how aircraft finance originated, how it developed over the years, and how it has now evolved to meet industry needs.

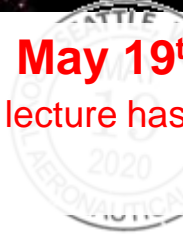

Don't miss this opportunity to learn and garner insight from an industry expert about how airlines and aircraft lessors Do finance all their airplanes.

May 19 September 22, 2020 – 6:30 PM

William M. Allen Theater, Museum of Flight – Seattle,

Free Admission – Open to the Public

May 19th Lecture POSTPONED
This lecture has been rescheduled as our Fall lecture
September 22nd

TO:

Aviation Enthusiasts

Aircraft Finance it's not a Board Game

View upcoming events:

www.seattle-raes.org/events/next.asp